PROSPECTUS
For Publishing in the City of Baltimore a Weekly Paper under the title of
THE WEEKLY BALTIMORE REPUBLICAN.

At the solicitation of several of our friends in this city, and applications of others from the different counties of the state, we have concluded on issuing a weekly edition of our paper, on or before the first of February next, or as much sooner as a sufficient number of subscribers shall be obtained, to warrant the undertaking.
It is deemed unnecessary to enter into a long detail of our political opinions, as they are well known to our friends throughout the state; but it is usual to make some pledges on commencing a new publication, we will therefore state, that as we have always been strictly Republican, so shall we continue, in despite of the machinations of wily politicians who are exerted every energy, to break us down; and so long as the principles of the present National Administration continue to receive the support of the people—the yearnery of the land, we shall continue their trusty sentinels on the watch-tower of freedom, and warn them of every encroachment on their liberties, by ambitious and aspiring demagogues.
We are not disposed to eulogize the character or conduct of men in this prospectus, but make these few remarks that our friends may know that our principles are unchangeable, and that we shall never desert them in the time of need—when the crisis of our common country calls every man to action.
It is necessary to extend a prospectus of a Newspaper, as every citizen is acquainted with the utility in adding intelligence to all sorts of a local or foreign nature, and the influence placed within their power, to be exerted over the public mind, if properly conducted, by giving the general spirit of these principles upon which our liberal institutions are founded, or in connecting those temporary theories, by exposing their objects, and holding up to view the individual who may be disposed, either from a personal dislike or private interest, to sport with the liberties of the country, or trifle with the inalienable rights of FREEDOM.
It will, no doubt, be conceded on all hands, that the result of the late election in this city, was owing in a great measure, to the want of a more general circulation of information among the people, than to the want of energy on our part. With these few remarks, we shall submit our sheet to the good sense and liberality of the public, hoping that they will see the necessity of encouraging us in our undertaking, as well for the interests of the party generally, as for ourselves.

TERMS.
THE WEEKLY REPUBLICAN will be printed in the same size sheet as our daily and country edition, and will contain most of the reading matter which may appear in those papers at the close of the week. Good paper and type will be used, and every improvement in its mechanical arrangement shall be adopted, of which the encouragement we shall receive will admit. It will be issued every Saturday morning, at the low price of Two Dollars per annum, if paid in advance, Two Dollars and Fifty Cents at the expiration of six months, or Three Dollars if not paid till the end of the year. These terms must be strictly adhered to.
Editors with whom we exchange in this and the adjacent states, will confer a favor by giving this prospectus a few gratuitous insertions in their papers; and by sending a copy containing it, marked, they will thereby enable themselves to a free exchange for one copy and those friends to whom we send it, will please procure as many subscribers as possible, and return their names to this office about the time the publication is to be commenced.
Post Masters and others, who will exert themselves in procuring subscribers, and forward the amount of their subscriptions, will be entitled to a deduction of fifteen per cent on a copy of the paper for one year for their trouble. They will also forward their names immediately, in order that we may place them among our list of Agents. Address, postage paid.
S. & J. N. HARKER,
South Gay-street, opposite the Exchange.

NOTICE.
ALL persons are cautioned against hunting with dogs or gun, or in any manner trespassing on that part of the Prince Georges Farm, formerly belonging to R. T. Crabbe, Esq., now in the possession of THOS. A. BRUCE.
